Air and Sea Freight Services in the Philippines

When it comes to importing goods into the Philippines, both air and sea freight play crucial roles. Air freight is ideal for high-value, time-sensitive, and perishable goods, offering fast and reliable transportation. It ensures that your products reach the Philippine market quickly, maintaining their quality and meeting urgent demands.

On the other hand, sea freight is a cost-effective option for larger shipments and bulk goods. It provides a steady and economical means of transporting various commodities to the Philippines. Our sea freight services from Guangzhou to major Philippine ports are well-established, with specific lead times to Manila, Cebu, and Davao as follows:

- Manila: 15-20 days from Guangzhou
