Introduction to the Caribbean Express Interline Service

Sunny Worldwide Logistics is excited to unveil our new Caribbean Express Interline Service, enhancing maritime links between major Chinese ports and key ports in the Caribbean. This service is set to commence, providing a direct shipping option that is expected to reduce transit times significantly and improve reliability¹.

Service Details and Benefits

Our sea freight services include fixed first and second leg allotments from Shanghai and Ningbo, ensuring a stable transit time of approximately 55 days to final delivery. We offer strong acceptance for small cargo and shipments under 500 kg, ensuring that your goods reach their destination promptly and securely². Our competitive rates for both volumetric and heavy cargo make us a preferred choice for businesses of all sizes³.

Air-to-Air Transit Options

We provide air-to-air transit to Caribbean airports, enhancing our connectivity and offering a more direct shipping option. This service is particularly beneficial for businesses with time-sensitive goods or those looking to bypass potential congestion at major ports⁴.

Customer Case Study: Cost-Effective Shipping

A client in the electronics sector faced challenges with fluctuating air freight rates during peak seasons. By choosing our services, they were able to secure more predictable and cost-effective shipping options, leading to improved operational efficiency and customer satisfaction⁵.
